

Discover Plasma

The Rhode Island public is invited to attend a free

Plasma Sciences Expo

at the Rhode Island Convention Center – November 1 and 2, 2012

The plasma scientific community reaches out to the Providence, Rhode Island community to share exciting challenges of research and plasma applications. A variety of industrial exhibitors, national laboratories, and universities have prepared displays for the general public. Many exhibits are hands-on, interactive, and geared to middle and high school students. This Expo is held in conjunction with the American Physical Society's Division of Plasma Physics 54th Annual Meeting.

Special Public Expo Hours

Thursday, November 1, 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.
(general public, students and teachers)

Parents, students, teachers, the local community, and other interested parties are invited to this special evening event. Meet and speak with professionals in the field of plasma physics, visit various interactive displays and presentations from selected participants in this exciting field.
